FETAKGOMO LOCAL MUNICIPALITY

ATTENDANCE AND PUNCTUALITY POLICY

1. Purpose
The purpose of this policy is to provide a standard of attendance and punctuality for all employees. Because employees are vital for the work of Fetakgomo Local Municipality, reliable and consistent attendance is a condition of employment.

2. Procedure
This policy applies to all employees of Fetakgomo Local Municipality. Employees are expected to be at their work area at their scheduled starting time, (07h30 – 13h00 and 14h00 – 16h30). However, work schedules may vary among Directorates including hours of work

2.1 Absence
Employees are considered absent from work when not available for the assigned work schedule regardless of the reason.

2.1.1 Scheduled Absence:
Employees are to notify their supervisors as early as possible about scheduling time off from work (e.g. doctor’s appointment, personal days etc.), whether paid or unpaid. Scheduled absences are arranged at the mutual convenience of the Directorate and employee based on the operational needs of the Directorate. Absence can be considered scheduled if a 24 hour notice is given in advance, and the absence is approved by the supervisor

2.1.2 Unscheduled absences:
If an employee misses work due to an unscheduled absence (e.g. calling in due to sickness), he/she must follow prescribed Directorate procedures may result being instituting disciplinary action up to including dismissal. After three consecutive days of unscheduled absence, failure to notify and receive approval will be considered job abscondment and the employees’ status can be terminated effective from the day following the last day of work.

2.1.3 Excessive Unscheduled Absence:
Excessive unscheduled absence may result in being instituting disciplinary action up to and including dismissal. Supervisors will notify an employee when patterns or concerns develop that may place them at risk of being reprimanded. The following factors should be considered in determining if unscheduled absence is excessive:
i. Patterns of absence: A pattern of absence demonstrates a predictable routine. For example, is the employee consistently absent the day after payday, or a particular day, e.g. Monday or Friday, or always on the day before or after a holiday, etc.

ii. Frequency of absence: How often does the employee have unscheduled absence. Repeated instances of unscheduled absences, such as call-ins, early departures, not reporting etc, should be considered. Even though the absence may not constitute a predictable pattern, is the employee often absent.

2.1.4 Tardiness:

Employees are considered tardy when they fail to report to the assigned work area at the scheduled time. This includes returning from breaks and lunch breaks. Directorates define punctuality standards for their operations and are responsible for communicating them to employees. Employees who expect to be late are to notify the supervisor or hi/her assignee according to Directorate prescribed procedures. Employees may not extend a normal workday to make up for being tardy without supervisors’ approval.

2.1.5 Attendance Register

Where applicable, employees must use a time reporting system or attendance register to document work time and breaks from work. Absences, late arrivals, early departures, and extended breaks in the workday are accounted for on employees’ time record. Failure to adhere to time reporting procedures may be grounds for reducing salary by calculating short time into rand and cent and/or instituting disciplinary procedures up to and including dismissal

2.1.6 Procedure to complete attendance register

i. Attendance registers are kept at the Head of the Department’s office or central place here every employee has access to, and must be completed daily.

ii. Unless prevented from doing so by unavoidable cause or where it is not practically possible (e.g. a person not at office or where a register is kept) every employee is required in respect of each day worked to make entries in ink on that day

iii. Employee to sign name, pay number and date of month on top of each page

iv. Each day on arrival, the employee should sign, fill in the times of arrival even if he/she is late

v. On departure the same is applicable
vi. When employee attends work outside council, sick or on leave, a column “written remarks” must be completed putting the reason/attaching a copy of certificate

vii. At the end of each month employees must sign under “certified Correct”, date and hand to Supervisor for verification.

viii. The register must be reviewed by the Head of Department on at least a monthly basis. The review should be evidenced in the register by signature

ix. The Head of Department must make sure that he/she possesses the means for making an accurate review (e.g. retain copies of staff leave application form)

x. Department Heads are required to keep record of their attendances in the Attendance Registers

xi. Link the flow of leave forms through the system to control leave forms

2.1.7 Provision should be made that the normal disciplinary proceedings will be followed for absenteeism from the workplace at all times.

2.1.8 Subject to any superior law or other instruments, this policy repeals all or any policy on the same subject matter existing on the date of its coming into operation.
